

School Millage Downed 5 To 3

Electors of the Escanaba Area Public Schools rejected by a vote of 5 to 3 Tuesday a proposal to levy 4 mills for 5 years to finance teachers salaries and school operations.

Unofficial returns show the proposition carried in only one of the school district's 10 precincts. This was the Escanaba 2nd Precinct, where there were 250 "yes" to 167 "no" votes.

The grand totals for the Area district: No—2940; Yes 1863.

Vote By Precincts

The board of canvassers met at 9 a. m. today to check the vote. The unofficial tally by precincts:

City Precinct 1—Yes 313, No 328; Prec. 2—Yes 204, No 167; Prec. 3—Yes 250, No. 306; Prec. 4—Yes 199, No 300; Prec. 5—Yes 112, No 232; Prec. 6—Yes 251, No 401; Prec. 7—Yes 197, No 387.

Rock Festival On Labor Day

ROCK—The Rock Lions are staging their 22nd annual Labor Day Festival with a parade starting the activities promptly at 10 a. m. Sept. 7.

Bands to participate will be the Drum and Bugle Corps from Manistique, the Gladstone High School Band, under the direction of Paul Cowen, the Munising High School Band under the direction of Ken Erickson, Perkins School Band under the direction of John Violette, the Ishpeming Blue Notes Junior Drum and Bugle Corps and others.

Invitations have been extended to Jobs Daughters of Marquette and Manistique, and the Color Guard Unit from K. I. Sawyer Air Base, the Clown Band, Munising and the baton twirlers, Republic. "The White Rockets" will perform with the Color Guard from K. I. Sawyer leading the parade.

Floats in addition to the local groups will be from Marquette, Gladstone, and Escanaba. Queens from any organizations or county are welcome to enter the parade. Anyone wishing to enter a float should contact George Weingartner, general chairman.

Prizes will be awarded in the following: best commercial, civic, comic, best club or organization, best marching unit, men, women, drill units, marching groups of boys and girls, best decorated horse, best riders, best bicycles, boys and girls, unique floats, religious groups, musical groups, best boy and girl clown and others.

Games and rides of all sorts will be offered on the Midway throughout the day. A water fight will be held between the Rock and Gladstone Fire Departments. The grand finale will be the fireworks at 8:15 and the dance at 9:30 p. m.

Any persons wishing to enter agricultural exhibits are to take them to the grounds Monday morning. Any organizations wishing to have a booth should contact Mr. Weingartner.

Kennedy Opens His Campaign

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy launched his campaign for U.S. senator at dawn today with a handshaking tour among workers in the historic Fulton Fish Market on the East River.

He was jostled and pushed by a friendly crowd of fishermen. People and trucks mingled in confusion along the sprawling stalls.

Some of the workers stepped in voluntarily as buffers to guard him as he worked his way, smiling and composed, through the throng, the fish crates and the muddy street. He shook every hand within reach.

Kennedy—nominated by the Democratic state convention Tuesday and by the Liberal party state convention Tuesday night, picked up a portable microphone to address the crowd, calling them his "fellow workers" and "fellow fishermen."

Later in the day Kennedy, 38, bids for organized labor support in a speech at the annual convention of the New York state AFL-CIO.

At the Democratic convention, he won by 968 votes to 153 over his only opponent, Rep. Samuel S. Stratton.

Patrol Is Short On Six-Footers

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—Why is the Washington State Patrol like a wallflower at the Senior Prom?

Answer: It isn't attracting enough tall young men.

The patrol said Tuesday it has received only 20 applications after a week of recruiting for men at least six feet tall, between 21 and 28, with a high school education.

Romney Popular In Schoolcraft

MANISTIQUE — Schoolcraft County on the basis of unofficial returns in Tuesday's primary election appeared to go pretty well Republican, giving Gov. George Romney 823 votes to Staebler's 682 on the Democratic ticket.

Gov. Romney's opposition, George Higgins, received 146 votes. Staebler was unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

On the Republican ticket in the contest for U. S. Senator nomination Meany polled 239, O'Neil 201 and Peterson 390. The Schoolcraft County vote was in line with other pluralities that apparently gave her the nomination.

Incumbent State Senator Kent Lundgren received 678 votes, Schweigert 67, Taber 29 and Vanlerberghe 101. Rep. Victor Knox, unopposed for re-nomination, polled 783 votes.

Hiawatha Township—Incumbent Agner Dehlin won nomination over Leon M. Wood 107 to 59. The proposition to levy 2 mills for 7 years to finance road improvements was defeated 129 to 87.

Seney Township — Incumbent Supervisor Francis Morrison won nomination over William McMahon 55 to 32.

Home Owners Ordinance Wins

DETROIT (AP)—A controversial "homeowners' rights" ordinance was adopted today despite the efforts of Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, a Democrat, and Republican Gov. George Romney. Both opposed its passage.

With all 1,099 precincts reporting, 137,671 voted for the ordinance and 114,743 against.

The ordinance basically provides "the right to recognize and respect the right of privacy" and to "enjoy his property in any lawful fashion according to his own dictates."

Cavanagh conceded defeat at 4 a. m. (EST), saying: "I am sure many who voted for the ordinance were taken in by its apparently harmless appearance. But the real intent of the proposal is far from harmless."

Cavanagh and Romney had said they opposed the ordinance on moral and legal grounds.

Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan Jr., of Wayne County ruled the proposal unconstitutional last February.

However, the Michigan Supreme Court later ruled the petition should be put to a referendum and that its constitutionality should be judged afterwards, if approved.

School Grants Are 4 Million

LANSING (AP) — The State Administrative Board Tuesday released $4 million of state aid matching funds to local school districts and colleges operating junior and community colleges.

The money will be used for construction projects. The state will pay not more than half the cost for each project with a top of $500,000 in aid for any state institution.

Grants approved included: Alpena $135,927; Benton Harbor $100,269; Battle Creek $180,282; Escanaba $58,771; Petoskey $78,064; Flint $464,590; Traverse City $95,192; Lansing $80,000; Grand Rapids $98,321; Jackson $25,000; Macomb County Community College $500,000; Muskegon $476,810; Oakland $415,560; Delta College $276,137; Port Huron $97,357; Dearborn $476,624; Highland Park $25,000; Northwest Wayne County Community College $336,095.

The board also approved leasing of office space in the downtown Lansing Prudden Building for three years for offices of the State Supreme Court and the new State Court of Appeals. The lease will run until Sept. 30, 1967.

Nominee Field For Legislature Reduced To 292

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan voters delivered some surprises and knocked a handful of incumbents out of their jobs Tuesday as a primary field of 871 legislative candidates was pared to 292 for the Nov. 3 general election.

Vote tabulations for the field, the largest in state history, lagged badly in some areas, including Wayne County. The fact that elections officials were contending with drastically revamped House and Senate districts for the first time was a complicating factor.

One startling upset found Edgar Lincoln, of Marshall, winning a Republican primary test against Sen. John Smeekens, R-Sherwood, the Senate president pro tem and a leading spokesman for so-called GOP conservatives in the legislature.

House Dean Beaten

In another, Sen. Charles McManiman, D-Houghton, was running third in a race — still undecided — also involving Sen. Philip Rahoi, D-Iron Mountain, and Rep. Joseph Mack, D-Ironwood.

A House race in Kent County took two veteran legislators out of the picture.

Rep. Andrew Bolt, R-Grand Rapids, the dean of the House who was seeking his 14th term, and Rep. Thomas Whinery, R-Grand Rapids, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, were beaten by Peter Kok, a Grand Rapids real estate

Woman Drowns As Auto Sinks

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A woman who pleaded for help from the top of her car after it plunged into the Great Miami River drowned today as it slowly sank.

At least a dozen bystanders watched as the woman screamed, "I can't swim!"

A witness said that as the woman stood on top of the vehicle and it slowly started to submerge, she jumped into the water, "kicked around a little," then disappeared.

Authorities recovered her body about two hours after the mishap and identified her as Josephine Johnson, about 50.

The woman, driving a 1963 model car, apparently was on her way to work when the vehicle plunged down a 25-foot embankment.

Police Sgt. S.J. Kavy said she apparently lost control on an oil-slick area of the road.

One witness Gene Snook, of Dayton, said he saw the accident. He said the woman's car spun across the road and disappeared over the embankment.

"I parked my car and ran down there. By then she was out the back of her car and she said she couldn't swim. She stood on it until it sank, then kicked around a little and went down," Snook said.

He continued: "I can't swim. I tried to get someone to go in after her but they wouldn't."

Marion Gibson Winner In 107th

Delta County gave a big vote to Clifford E. Erickson of Newberry, sight unseen, but it wasn't enough to overcome the home town admiration of his opponent, Mrs. Marion Gibson of Newberry, and she won the Republican nomination for state representative in the new 107th District in Tuesday's primary.

The final unofficial tabulation was:

Mrs. Gibson 2,247.
Erickson 1,664.
Vernon Smith of Paradise 1,419.

Mrs. Gibson, president of the board of education at Newberry, mother of two sons and wife of a doctor, defeated Erickson, a school teacher, for the right to face Einar Erlandsen, incumbent Democratic representative from the Delta District in the Nov. 3 election. The district includes most of Delta County, most of Schoolcraft county, all of Luce and the top 6 townships and the city of Sault Ste. Marie in Chippewa County.

The vote:

Chip. Luce Sch'c Del.
Erickson ... 241 63 195 1164
Gibson ... 434 597 318 898
Smith ... 437 73 253 656

P. M. Herrmann Of Steuben Dies

MANISTIQUE — Phillip M. Herrmann, 79, prominently known resident of Steuben, and former Postmaster of the village, died at 11:30 p. m. Tuesday at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient 11 days. He was in failing health the past year.

Born Nov. 16, 1884, in Saginaw, he moved to Steuben 50 years ago. His marriage to the former Lucille Koehler took place in Saginaw June 6, 1909.

He served in the U. S. Navy from 1901 to 1905 in the Asiatic theatre, and was a lieutenant in the U. S. Naval Reserve from 1905 to 1914. He was Postmaster at Steuben 17 years and his last employment was with the Manistique & Lake Superior Railway. He was a member of the Lodge 371 F. & A. M. of the Masonic order.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, Louis of New Delhi, India, and Karl of Steuben; two sisters, Mrs. Vernon Yates and Miss Ann Herrmann, Detroit; and two grandchildren.

Friends may call at Messier-Brouillette Funeral Home, Manistique, beginning at 2:30 p. m. Thursday. Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the funeral home chapel. The Rev. Ingmar Levin will officiate. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery. Masonic services will be conducted by the Blue Lodge at the funeral home Thursday at 8 p. m.

Delta Balloting Shows GOP Edge In All Races

Delta County voters, who have in recent years voted about 45 per cent Republican and 55 per cent Democratic, turned out more Republican votes Tuesday. Either that or some Demos crossed the line.

In the state several GOP leaders in the state senate and house got bumped in what some political analysts saw as a cleanup of the GOP old guard conservatives who had opposed Governor Romney.

Romney ran far out in front of the Democratic candidates for governor in Delta County. Neil Staebler got 2,884 votes and Romney 3,434 and another 326 were cast for George Higgins, opposing Romney for the GOP nomination, so the Republican total in the county was 3,750 to the 2,884 cast for Staebler.

Rep. Einar Erlandsen, veteran legislator unopposed for Democratic nomination in the new 107th Legislative District, polled 2,710 in Delta to run a bit behind Staebler. The vote was almost equal on the GOP side, with 2,719 cast for three persons seeking the nomination. Delta voters favored Clifford Erickson of Newberry, 1,155, to Marian Gibson of Newberry, 989 and Vern Smith of Paradise 656. Mrs. Gibson won in the district.

U. S. Senator Philip A. Hart, unopposed for the Democratic nomination, polled 2,698 to 3,130 cast for three Republican candidates, Elly Peterson, who won the state nomination, 2,140, James F. O'Neill 542 and Edward A. Meaney Jr., 448.

Deltans backed the winner in the Democratic race for 11th district Congress nomination on the Democratic ticket, giving 1,673 to Raymond Clevenger of Sault Ste. Marie; 898 to Russell Bradley of Menominee of 322 to Theodore Albert of Ironwood. Clevenger won, with Bradley next and Albert last.

Primaries Held In 3 Townships

Ensign Township's veteran Supervisor Harold Gustafson won renomination as a candidate, polling 155 votes to 51 votes for Stanley Dominick, in Tuesday's primary election.

Elaine C. Olsen was nominated over Carol Jean Majestic for treasurer 151 to 51. Unopposed were Clerk Linnea Lindquist, 189; and Everett L. Johnston, for trustee, 172.

Wells Township had only one primary contest on its Township Taxpayers Ticket, for township treasurer. James E. Anderson won with 467 votes to 217 cast for Ray Abrahamson, whose name won't appear on the Nov. 3 ballot.

Unopposed and nominated for election on Nov. 3 were Charles Sedenquist, supervisor; Alfred P. Groos, clerk; and Edward LaMarche, trustee.

Results in the Ford River Township election are: supervisor, Phil A. Miron, 314; clerk, Clarence Nordquist, 315; treasurer, Clarence Dittich, 315; trustee, Jerome Stannard, 286; constable, only contest in the election: Dayton Dittich, 110; Daniel E. Wellman, 85; Raymond C. Hanson, 75; H. H. Mueller, 33; Harry Lorange, 27.

Clevenger Wins Congress Race

Raymond Clevenger, Sault Ste. Marie attorney and law practice associate of Paul L. Adams, a justice of the Michigan Supreme Court was nominated by the Democrats for 11th District Congressman in Tuesday's primary.

Clevenger is a former Michigan securities commissioner. He polled 13,256 on latest Associated Press tabulation returns from Tuesday's voting to lead the race in Democratic contest. Russell Bradley, Menominee County prosecuting attorney was second with 10,027 votes and Theodore Albert of Ironwood was third with 8,005 on incomplete returns.

Clevenger will face incumbent Republican Congressman Victor A. Knox of Sault Ste. Marie in the Nov. 3 election. Knox polled 29,506 in latest returns in the Republican voting, in which he was unopposed. There were 217 votes cast for the late Congressman John B. Bennett (R-Ontonagon) whose death came so late that it was not possible to remove his name from some ballots. He had served the 12th District, which has been included in the new 11th in the State redistricting this year.

Clevenger was the first to announce for the congressional race in the 11th on the Democratic ticket and he carried on the most active campaign of the three candidates.

The district now includes all 15 U. P. counties and 7 counties in the top of the Lower Peninsula.

Escanaba Turns Out 57% Of Its Registered Voters

For a primary election the turnout voters was "not bad," City Clerk Don Guindon said today.

A total of 4,104 valid votes were cast in the Tuesday election of a total 7,200 registered voters in the city, the clerk reported. This was 57 per cent turnout.

Escanaba voters ballot on machines and all returns were tabulated in the city by 9:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The general election will be held in Michigan on Nov. 3 and persons who are not registered have until Oct. 5 to register, the city clerk noted. He asks that registrations be made at once to avoid the rush later.

New Yorker To Write About U.P.

Mrs. Martha Munzer of Marquette, N. Y., left Marquette Tuesday after spending several days collecting information for a book she is writing.

Mrs. Munzer, of the Conservation Foundation in New York, is writing a book to be called "Pockets of Hope" which is to be published next year by Alfred Knopf of New York. She plans to feature recent transitions in the mining industry, as well as new developments in tourism and forestry on the Marquette iron range.

Hosted by Michigan State University information specialist Jim Gooch of Marquette, Mrs. Munzer contacted officials at the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co., the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, the Marquette County Historical Society, the U. S. Forest Service and Michigan Department of Conservation while in the area. She also interviewed staff members at Northern Michigan University, Michigan Tech and the M. S. U. Extension Service.

Phil Deneau Is Appointed To Police Position

Walter "Phil" Deneau, 23, of Rapid River has passed an Escanaba city civil service examination and was appointed by City Manager George Harvey as a patrolman in the police department. He began work today and his appointment fills a vacancy.

Deneau graduated from Rapid River High School in 1959 and later entered military service and received an honorable discharge in June of 1962. He is married and has one child.

To satisfy an Escanaba city policy requirement, the Deneaus will move to Escanaba shortly. After six months he will receive police school training at East Lansing.

Patrick Gannon Enlists In Army

Gannon will take his basic training at Fort Wood, Mo. He enlisted for three years. The Army Recruiting office is at 716 Ludington St. and is open each Wednesday and Thursday. The Army guarantees choice of school, job or overseas assignment before men enlist.

Bowling Team Is Organized

ENSIGN—A new bowling team has been organized in the Ensign community. The team is sponsored by Strohs of the Johnson Distribution Center in Escanaba. The bowling team will be known as the "Strohettes" and will meet with the Friday night league at the Gladstone Midway Bowling Alley. Members will be Carol Jean Majestic, Ann Mauhar, Mary Dominick, Peggy Berglund, Ceio Saddler of Gladstone. The newly organized team will have its first action on Friday, Sept. 11.

Lyle Trombly In Order Of Arrow

ROCK — Lyle Trombly was inducted into the Order of the Arrow recently. Allen Salmi, member of the Order of the Arrow of the Wyandotte Chapter, conducted the election at a meeting of Rock Troop 489, at which the boys in the troop elected the member whom they thought lived up to the best of the Scout Oath and Laws. Lyle was tapped out Aug. 13 at the regular Rock Boy Scout meeting and on Aug. 14-16 he attended the fall ordeal at the Red Buck Scout Camp at Munising. He passed the ordeal and was inducted into the Order of the Arrow.

Extra Threat

Humans often say that the things they prepare for don't usually happen; that it is the unexpected in life that creates its biggest problems.

Hanson Baldwin suggests something of this kind in an article in the current Atlantic Magazine, "Red Flag Over the Seven Seas," which says that the most important development of the latter half of the 20th Century may not be the emerging states of Africa, nor the trouble in South Viet Nam, the trend toward nationalism, racism in America or the other well advertised problems of the moment.

In the long view of history, suggests Baldwin, Russia's current drive for maritime dominance may be the great development of the last half of the current century, influencing world affairs in a manner not at all imagined at this time.

America, with its democratic controls giving the electorate veto power on national policy, can never implement foreign policy like a dictatorship like Russia. When the United States withdrew from financing of the Aswan high dam in Egypt, Russia stepped in. After President Kennedy said that the United States should help India build the Bokaro steel mill north-west of Calcutta, Congress vetoed the plan as an economy in the foreign aid program (Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Michigan) wrote the amendment) and as an unnecessary excursion of government into private enterprise.

But Soviet Embassy Counsellor L. A. Korobin in New Delhi made political hay with the observation "It took us three weeks to agree to give India what America took three years to refuse."

It is all part of a huge power play. The public cannot be expected to follow every move on the chess-board, but it will be mightily concerned with the final play and very critical of American policy which fails to checkmate the Russians. Baldwin says that while Russia, currently is making friendly sounds in its relations with the United States, it is building a maritime force that will implement Khrushchev's promise "to bury us."

Baldwin, an Annapolis graduate and military editor of the New York Times, says that deterrence of Russia's military conquest of the world becomes formidable if, in addition to its land power, it becomes a major sea power and that if it gains control of the seas our deterrence becomes impossible.

The United States is the greatest maritime nation in the world today. But its uprency is more apparent than real. Our huge total of shipping includes all the obsolescent, inactive vessels that we created and acquired for World War II and two-thirds of the total is idle and rusting. There has been a steady decrease in the U.S. merchant fleet while the Soviet fleet has increased at an average rate of 450,000 tons a year.

The Russian fleet has doubled in size in the past 13 years and actually operates more merchant vessels in ocean trade than we do. The Soviet objective in the 1975-80 period is the largest maritime fleet in the world.

Merchant fleets are, of course, a very important auxiliary to the navy and a prime weapon of the cold war. Russia is not only big and husky and pushy in world shipping—note that its ships took all the missiles and men to Cuba—but it has also been impressively active in ocean research and its fishing fleets are now found in all the seas of the globe.

Most of the world's big shipbuilders, with the exception of the United States, are contributing new ships to the Russian fishing fleet as it spends about $320 million a year on fishing vessels. Their newest ships are better equipped for finding and catching fish, says Baldwin, than those of any other fleet.

The Soviet's fishing fleets provide it with a means of entry for communism into many nations and it is significant that one of the first agreements made between Moscow and Fidel Castro's Cuba concerned the fishing industries of both countries. With Soviet money and skills a base for their fishing fleets is being established near Havana and about a dozen Soviet trawlers are operating from Cuba. The Soviet vessels needn't return to Russia to repair or fuel. They have fueled in Veracruz, Mexico and use many African ports.

The implications of this huge and growing network of trade should not be obscured by the diversion in South Viet Nam, where the Communists keep us so expensively and exasperatingly occupied while they move forward on other fronts which have as real a role in the war between Russia and the free world as the shooting.

The Doctor Says:

If You Itch, Scratch

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

Itching is a type of pain that afflicts everyone at times and some people a great deal of the time. It is said that Napoleon itched so much that at a critical moment of one battle he turned over the command to a subordinate, withdrew from the scene, took off all his clothes and rolled on a straw-covered floor while orderlies scratched his skin until it bled. Even then he kept shouting at them to scratch harder.

Obviously, this is not the best way to treat an itching skin. Dr. Samuel Ayres, Jr., of Los Angeles says that scratching is an art, and he recommends that everyone learn the proper technique. You must first learn to differentiate between the point of maximum itching and the itchy skin that surrounds it. The point of maximum intensity may be caused by an insect bite, an allergy (hives) or some other irritant.

If you scratch yourself at this point you release certain chemicals in the tissues that aggravate your problem, so you must learn to leave the central point alone and rub the surrounding area gently with your hand. Even better results can be achieved by brushing this area with a medium-hard brush. I save my discarded toothbrushes for this and other purposes.

Scratching even with the best of techniques, however, gives only temporary relief. A great variety of preparations are now available to soothe itching that threatens to drive you crazy. Some of these (water-dispersible bath oil and guanethidine) I have mentioned in the past. One of the newer preparations is betamethasone. In a feverish effort to find new products, however, we often neglect such tried-and-true standbys as calamine lotion with phenol which is obtainable at your nearest pharmacy without a doctor's prescription.

Q — I get a rash every time I eat tomatoes. Is there anything I can take to prevent this?

A — If you are allergic to tomatoes the best treatment is the eliminate them from your diet. This means pizza, vegetable soups, ketchups and all other items that contain tomatoes in any form. After you get the hives, an antihistamine tablet or an injection of epinephrine should give you prompt relief. An allergist might be found who would give you a series of desensitizing injections but this form of treatment is not as successful against food allergies as it is against those caused by inhaling pollens.

Famed Philatelist Is Escanaba Native Son

BY ERNEST H. RANKIN

Marquette County Historical Society

The only reason at all for injecting Harry L. Lindquist into an article on Marquette's early postoffices is, that he is in a sense, a product of the Upper Peninsula. The Upper Peninsula has produced some eminent men who have gone into the world and attained fame and fortune. Harry Lindquist is one of these men and while Marquette cannot claim him as a native son, Escanaba can, for he was born there Aug. 15, 1884.

He writes in a recent letter, "My father, Frederick W. Lindquist, was a land agent for the Northern Pacific Railroad, organizing groups of homesteaders to move to Minnesota and the Dakotas, and we moved from town to town in that connection. At some time or other we lived in Crystal Falls, Ishpeming and Iron Mountain where I was graduated from high school in 1903."

It was on Dec. 17, 1881 that the Northern Pacific Railroad completed its line into Superior, Wis., opening up the western country to the Swedes and others who were encouraged by Frederick Lindquist to take up homesteads.

Early Rockhound As a boy, Harry collected minerals, fossils, and other natural history specimens that abounded in the Upper Peninsula. He was elected secretary of the American Society of Curio Collectors, becoming editor of their magazine before he was seventeen. Shortly after he was graduated from high school he moved to Chicago and began publishing community newspapers and other publications, including the Collectors Journal, at his own printing plant.

He served abroad in World War I, and after this conflict became associated with several trade publications, both in Chicago and New York.

In September, 1932, he again started a self-owned publishing firm with Stamps Magazine, and shortly thereafter with philatelic books as well as those on other hobbies, particularly on doll collecting. In spite of the depression of the 1930's, Stamps prospered and is today the leading philatelic magazine in the country. Harry Lindquist has attained international fame throughout the philatelic world and probably holds more honorary memberships in stamp clubs and societies than any other living person. To list his accomplishments, not only in the philatelic field, but in many others, would require the writing of an extensive biography. Harry has never lost his interest in, or his love for, the Upper Peninsula. For many years his former New York office on 48th street supplied Michigan literature to tourists — all gratis. Harry still has many friends in the Upper Peninsula and because of his close association with this region the following article was submitted to Stamps and published in a recent issue.

Michigan Covers

Over the past many years early Michigan covers have interested numerous collectors. A recent study of the early post offices of the Marquette iron region shows that it might be difficult to obtain a complete collection of early covers from this area. Had there been only one post office with an established and lasting name, the matter would be comparatively simple; however, as the area had several names, distributed between two locations in pioneering days, complications are presented.

The Marquette iron region, now referred to as the Marquette Range, was first opened up by Philo Marshall Everett, of Jackson. He visited the area for the first time in the summer of 1845, and, impressed with its possibilities, formed the Jackson Mining Co during the following winter. In the spring of 1846, Everett, with a crew of mechanics, machinery, and supplies, was landed by the schooner, Fur Trader on Ripley's Rock, the only place for mooring a vessel in the vicinity of the mouth of the Carp River, as the location was generally known at that time.

Wagon Road

During the summer of 1846 a tortuous wagon road was constructed from the mouth of the Carp River to the Jackson Location, some dozen miles or so west of Lake Superior. Here was a mountain of rich iron

Miss Irene Larson of Gladstone has resigned her position as staff nurse with the Delta-Menominee Department Health Service and will be employed by the Chicago board of education.

Members of the Escanaba High School class of 1934 are to hold their class reunion at the Delta Supper Club tonight. Kenneth Thompson will preside over the informal program.

Wallace J. Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cameron of Gladstone left this week for Madrid, Spain, where he will attend the university for the next year. The young man recently won a $2,000 scholarship to study in Spain.

Twenty Years Ago There is an acute labor shortage in Escanaba and the area, particularly in woods workers. About 500 men proficient in this type of work are badly needed.

A protracted drought has seriously cut into the potato harvest prospects for this year. Cadet - Midshipman John Frederickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Frederickson, of Escanaba, has received his commission from the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N. Y.

Thirty Years Ago After 12 years of dormancy, the Grange at Bark River has been reactivated.

Fifty-three years ago two brothers parted company in Norway. One left for America, the other remained home. Later the brother in Norway came to America though where he went, was not ascertained. Last week the two met in Evanston. Gustav Swanson is now 79 and his brother Andrew, of Evanston is 83.

The August just past provided a wide variety of weather. The highest temperature of the month was 83 and the lowest, 37. Precipitation was light, 2.68 inches.

ore, great forests of hardwoods for the making of charcoal, and an abundance of water power made available by the building of an eighteen-foot-high dam across the Carp River, meeting all the requirements for the manufacture of "bloom" iron.

It was here that on Feb. 10, 1848, the first iron ever to have been produced in the Lake Superior region was forged. While this frontier village of log cabins was commonly referred to as the Jackson Location, the first Carp River Post Office was established here on Jan. 12, 1847, with William B. McNair as postmaster. He held this position until June 29, 1848, when he was replaced by Everett, who was postmaster until May 11, 1850.

A man named Czar Jones became the next incumbent of the office, relinquishing the position again to Everett on Sept. 23, 1850. The forging of iron blooms at the Jackson Location did not prove to be economically successful. The forge shut down, and the first Carp River Post Office was permanently discontinued on April 2, 1852.

Meanwhile, on July 6, 1849, down on the shores of Lake Superior, Amos R. Harlow had unloaded his supplies, machinery, and mechanics at Ripley's Rock, and almost overnight founded the village of Worcester, named for Harlow's home town in Massachusetts. Even before a post office could be established, Harlow had written back home to his "Friend Fisher," under date of July 10, 1849, the letter being headed, "Worcester, Michigan." It was not until September 14, 1849, that the Worcester, Michigan Post Office was established, with A. R. Harlow, Postmaster. The name of this first post office on "Iron Bay" was changed from Worcester to Marquette on Aug. 21, 1950, Harlow continuing as postmaster.

Not to be outdone, on Oct. 13, 1851, Peter White, who was to become an eminent citizen of the area (as did Everett and Harlow) opened a second Carp River Post Office in his store, across the dirt road from Harlow's Marquette Post Office, which occupied a corner in the living room of his log cabin home. The condition of having two post offices in this frontier village with a population of around three hundred people, including Indians, half-breeds and children, existed until August 16, 1852, when Harlow capitulated, closing his office.

Although the location had definitely become known as Marquette, Lake Superior, Mich., its post office was still called Carp River. This prevailed until April 17, 1856 when the name was again changed to Marquette, Peter White continuing as postmaster until Aug. 19 of that year.

It would, indeed, be a fortunate cover collector who might have a complete collection of these five early Marquette Range post offices.

Questions And Answers

Q—What U. S. president was once presented with an African lion?

A—Andrew Jackson as a gift from the Emperor of Morocco.

Q—Why does the color of honey vary?

A—The exact color depends on the kind of flower from which the honey was made. Dark-colored honeys are made mostly from the nectar of buckwheat and from the flowers of tulip trees. Light honeys come from alfalfa, orange blossoms, sage and some kinds of clover.

First Shipping Tragedy of War In '39 Recalled

LONDON (AP) — A brisk breeze whipped up the North Atlantic as the British liner Athenia cut through the whitecaps on her voyage into history a quarter century ago Thursday.

It was Sunday, Sept. 3, 1939. The 13,581-ton ship was only a day out of Liverpool bound for Montreal.

Among the 1,417 passengers — 200 more than normal — there was little of the usual gaiety of an Atlantic crossing.

Just before lunch, the expected news came. A seaman posted a bulletin that Britain and France were at war with Germany.

The sweep of events in Europe dominated the conversation among passengers and crew. Many on board were Americans who had hoped to get home before the outbreak of a general war.

Periscope Sighted

At 7:45 p.m., as the sun dropped toward the horizon, the Athenia was 250 miles off the northern tip of Ireland. Some passengers were still having dinner.

Suddenly, the lookout in the crow's nest shouted.

An eighth of a mile away a periscope poked through the water. A white streak of foam raced toward the ship. A moment later there was a crash.

The torpedo blasted a huge hole in the port side astern of the engine room. A few minutes later a submarine numbered U30 surfaced and shot away the Athenia's mainmast with a deck gun.

At 11 a.m. the following day, the Athenia sank. She had become the first Allied casualty of the Nazi U-boats.

The attack cost 112 lives. About half of the victims were Americans or Canadians. The sinking stirred an international outcry because the U30 had struck without warning against an unarmed merchantman.

In addition, neither the United States nor Canada was at war yet with Germany.

Some compared the incident to the sinking of the Lusitania in 1915, which helped edge the United States into World War I.

Why had the Nazi war machine struck against the Athenia so blatantly? Obviously embarrassed, the German propagandists accused the British of staging the sinking to drag the United States into the war.

The Germans had made a similar accusation after the Lusitania incident.

But the real story of the attack on the Athenia came out at the Nuremberg war crime trials in 1946. A statement by Adm. Karl Doenitz told how he had met the U30 on her return to port and encountered a "very unhappy" Capt. Fritz - Julius Lemp, the submarine's skipper. Lemp told Doenitz he had mistaken the Athenia for an armed merchant cruiser on patrol. The Nazi regime imposed an oath of secrecy on everyone involved and even ordered the U-boat's log doctored.

U30 went on to make several more kills.

So They Say

War in the nuclear age has become an increasingly irrational way of achieving rational objectives.

—Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

My feeling is that with time the misunderstanding that complicates the relationship between France and the United States will diminish.

—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark.

Ann Landers

Stubborn Mama Will Be Lonely

Dear Ann Landers: My husband, my sons, my doctor and the Rabbi tell me I am wrong. Maybe I am, but how can a mother change her feelings?

My oldest son, Milton, came to me four months ago and said, "Mama, I am married." I was very happy — until he began to tell me about the girl. She is not of our religion. She has been married twice before, and she is eight years old than Milton.

I told Milton that as long as he lives he should never bring that girl into my house because I cannot accept her as a daughter-in-law.

The rest of the family sees Milton and his wife every few weeks. They all tell me she is a fine girl and that they are very happy. I didn't raise Milton for a marriage like this—even if he is happy.

You are a mother, Ann, and you must understand how I feel. Am I wrong? — S.S.W.

Dear S. S. W.: Yes, I do understand how you feel. But your unforgiving, stubborn attitude will bring you nothing but loneliness and misery.

According to my count, this girl has four strikes against her. I can't blame you for being unhappy about Milton's choice. But she is Milton's wife now and you should accept her.

Dear Ann Landers: When I was going through the pockets in my husband's wash trousers before putting them into the machine I found a bank deposit slip. It was made out under his nickname. The account I know about is under his full name, which means this second account is a secret one.

I am so hurt I don't know what to do. We have been married less than a year and I thought he trusted me in all matters. This proves I was wrong. Should I tell my husband I found the deposit slip and ask him why he tried to hide money from me? Or would it be best to pretend I don't know about it and hope he will tell me on his own?

Thank you. NOT SNOOPING JUST WASHING.

Dear Not Snooping: Tell your husband you found the bank deposit slip and that you think it is wonderful he wanted to surprise you with a little nest-egg.

Don't give the impression you thought he was trying to deceive you. It could be he was not.

Dear Ann Landers: Our daughter is 20 years old, attractive, has a lovely figure and two years of college.

Doreen has several young men friends who take her out, but it seems that she must be on the go every night of her life or she isn't happy. She thinks nothing of going out alone or with another girl if she has no dates.

Am I old-fashioned because I believe it is improper for young women to go unescorted to bars or cocktail lounges and become friendly with men they never saw before?

Doreen insists she and her girl friend have met some very high class men this way and that it is a common and respectable practice. I think it is deplorable and have told her so. May I hear your opinion, please? — BEHIND THE TIMES.

Dear Times: Your daughter is half right. It's a common practice — plenty common — but it is NOT respectable.

Dateless women who rivet themselves to bar stools and frequent cocktail lounges give the impression they are pickups, even if they are not.

A girl who values her reputation doesn't rattle around town unescorted, or with another female.

Do you lean on cigarettes as a social crutch? You may regret it later. Send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teen-age Smoking," enclosing with your request 10c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

BARBS

By HAL COCHRAN

Though a girl's regular boyfriend's name is Joe, he may be called Charley, Marvin or Robert when she gets home from vacation.

Soon a lot of folks will be climbing on the political band wagon to test somebody else's horn.

Mosquitoes should never have been taught to ride bareback.

VOLCANO, as seen from one of the three villages on Stromboli, an island north of Sicily. Note the crack in the wall of the house. Most houses on the island show signs of the volcano's activity.

Vacation At Volcano

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — While people are planning vacations at the seashore or in a pleasant state park, Douglas W. Schwartz plans to spend his at the base of an active volcano.

He wants to find out how people react when they might be buried in steaming lava any minute.

Schwartz, a professor of anthropology at the University of Kentucky, will spend the summer in the village of San Bartolomeo, on the island of Stromboli, north of Sicily in the Tyrrhenian Sea.

"I want to find out what ideas these people share to help them cope with the situation," Schwartz said, after explaining that the volcano on the island erupts with violence and destruction periodically.

He noted that the Stromboli volcano erupts mildly every few minutes, serving as a reminder to those living nearby that it's still there and is still a threat to their lives.

It is Schwartz's theory that various groups of people on earth use different values to avoid constantly thinking of any danger that is present.

For instance, most of the civilized world knows that it could be wiped out any time by nuclear war. But most of us use the mechanism of denial. We tell ourselves, "It just won't happen."

Schwartz believes that peasant societies of Southern Italy use fatalism. They tell themselves, "If the volcano erupts and I'm killed, there just isn't anything I can do about it so there's no need to worry."

But Schwartz points out that his theory on how Strombolians meet their everyday danger is just that—a theory. He's going to the island to find out whether it's true.

What will he do with the information when he has it? It could have some practical use, such as a mental approach for civil defense, but the most important purpose is merely the first step in research of reactions of a particular culture.

"Research is like a baby," Schwartz says, "you never know what it will be when it grows up unless you let it grow."

His wife, Nita, and children, Steve, 12, and Susan, 8, are going with him. His wife speaks better Italian than he does, so she will interpret.

"And as a family man, I believe I'll blend in better and be accepted more easily into the society of the village," he said.

What if the volcano erupts while he's there? "Oh, it just won't do that," Schwartz said, using his best defense mechanism.

World's Largest Marriage Bureau Booming Again

NEW YORK (AP) — The world's largest marriage license bureau is busier than ever because of the bumper crop of World War II babies now making applications for licenses to get married.

Herman Katz, who heads New York City's Marriage License Bureau, reports that 1964 will be one of the biggest years for licenses issued. And 1964 being a leap year has nothing to do with it, he adds.

"The kids today are getting married younger," Katz said. "The fact of the matter is that the big rush is on because of the World War II babies who have reached the marrying age. And, of course, some of the younger men are getting married to take advantage of the draft deferment for married men."

Girls Mostly 18
But 1964 will never top the record of 106,447 licenses issued in 1946 when World War II ended and discharged veterans rushed home to the sweethearts who waited for them.

In the first seven months of 1964, the bureau issued 41,665 licenses, an increase of 2,878 over the same period in 1963.

A check of the applications shows that most licenses are being issued to 18-year-old girls and 21-year-old men, the minimum age requirements for marriages without parental consent. Many licenses have been issued to girls under 18 and men under 21 but with parental consent. Legally, licenses can be issued to girls as young as 14 and boys as young as 16 with court sanction.

Last year the applications showed that most licenses were issued to applicants from 21 to 23 years of age.

When Katz performs a wedding — he and his six deputies, besides judges and Mayor Robert F. Wagner, are the only non-clergymen authorized to perform weddings in New York City — he takes the couple to the bureau's wedding chapel, small but tastefully decorated, with a pulpit and stained glass window.

Five-Minute Ceremony
"When I take that pulpit I try to give the impression to the couple before me that they're the only two people in the world who are getting married," he said. The ceremony takes about five minutes but Katz likes to stretch it out as long as possible.

Last year the city issued 69,625 licenses and expects to approach 80,000 by December 31. Only five states outside of New York, issued more licenses in 1963. Pennsylvania issued 71,211; Ohio, 71,675; Illinois, 94,552; Texas, 103,937; California, 121,369. New York State issued 130,511.

"Nevada, which issued 73,233, doesn't count," said Katz. "It's a business there, what with all their divorces. Here it's something special."

Water Deaths Increase; Police Call For Caution

EAST LANSING (AP) — Water deaths are mounting up, the same as highway deaths, state police reported today, in urging more caution.

There have been 231 deaths in the first six months of the year, police said, 25 more than during the same period a year ago.

Police asked increased attention to water safety rules over the Labor Day weekend. They suggested the use of lifejackets when boating, swimming only in approved areas and knowledge of life-saving procedures.

Soviet Autos Sold To Danes

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — The electric sign in front of a Copenhagen auto dealer's showroom proclaims: "Plymouth... Valliant... Moskvitch."

Depending on his pocketbook, the Dane can take his choice of these and many other makes.

Soviet cars such as the Moskvitch aren't exactly flooding the market, but they are making a dent. About 45 a month are sold, in contrast to 1,000 Volkswagens from West Germany.

Nordisk Diesel, the importers, estimate that more than 1,500 Moskvitches and Volgas have gone onto Danish roads since imports started in 1961.

Sven Heitmann is the most successful of 10 Copenhagen showrooms with Russian cars. He sold more than 150 last year, and says sales are going up.

"Most of the Soviet cars I sell are bought by people who heard the cars recommended by other people," he says.

Danish sales taxes are high, bringing the price of a Moskvitch to about $1,700. The Volga de luxe sells about $2,800. A Volkswagen is around $2,200.

The Moskvitch can squeeze in four persons while the Volga has room for five.

Few other family cars of this type can be bought at similar prices. American cars are much more expensive, many being in the $5,000-7,000 range. About 1,000 U.S. passenger cars are imported every year.

Dealers believe that more Soviet cars would be sold in this country if the body designs were more up to date. As of now they seem fashioned after older models of the West German Opel.

More important is a political barrier.

"Businessmen especially hesitate to be seen driving a Communist car," says Heitmann.

What attracts buyers apparently is low price and solidity. The cars are built for bad Russian roads and the Soviet makers say the steel bodies are designed to withstand below-zero temperatures. Danish experts speak favorably of the body steel.

A Danish newspaperman who has driven a Moskvitch two years declares: "They are about the solidest things since the Model T Ford."

WORKED FOR AWHILE
HOKKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Dick Harrison wanted to slow down traffic on Lafayette Road in front of his home so he put up a sign similar to ones used by the State Highway Department that said "Dinosaur crossing" and had an illustration of one of the beasts on it. The sign produced results. In fact it brought one motorist to a complete stop long enough to swerve the sign.

Scientist Sees World Famine

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — A world famine striking "hundreds of millions or even billions of human beings" is near, a scientist-economist warned today.

"It will be the most colossal catastrophe in history," declared Dr. Raymond Ewell, vice president for research, State University of New York at Buffalo.

Such a famine in Asia, Africa and South America by the 1970s and later seems almost inevitable as expanding population outstrips food production, he told the American Chemical Society.

Dr. Ewell said the only immediate step open to avert it is for the United States and Europe to make outright Good Samaritan gifts of millions of tons of fertilizers to increase local food yields.

The deadline even for succeeding this way is only a few years away, he said.

Birth control is the ultimate answer, Dr. Ewell said, but its effects on the food-population problem will be slow. Unless birth control is applied, however, the famine would still come regardless of boosts in food production, he said.

By present trends, "it seems likely that the famine will reach serious proportions in India, Pakistan and China in the early 1970s, followed by Indonesia, Iran, Turkey, Egypt and several other countries within a few years, and then followed by most of the other countries of Asia, Africa and Latin America by 1980," Dr. Ewell predicted. Population in these areas will increase by about one billion persons in 20 years, but food output has not been increasing, he said.

Mrs. Dennis Charles Hogan

Alexandra Jarosz Dennis Hogan's Bride

Alexandra Jarosz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace J. Jarosz, and Dennis Charles Hogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Hogan, 703 S. 17th St., Escanaba, were joined in holy matrimony at Holy Name Catholic Church in Birmingham, Mich., Saturday, Aug. 22.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Hillcrest Country Club. An evening reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride chose a floor length gown of silk linen with tunic effect skirt and detachable wattleau train, flowing from the shoulders. Venetian lace sculptured the neckline, and trimmed the elbow length sleeves and the skirt, and bordered the train. Matching lace accented the pointed silk linen pillbox with a butterfly, bouffant, silk illusion veil.

The bridesmaids wore pale gold tulle dresses with scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. The floor length over-skirt had matching bows down either side. They wore matching pillboxes with circular veils.

The sister of the bride, Louise Jarosz, was maid of honor. Mrs. Lana Bourdon and Mrs. Kathleen Hogan were bridesmaids.

John Thomas Hogan was his brother's best man and Leonard Michalowski and Robert Anderson were ushers.

Mrs. Jarosz chose an ensemble of champagne beige Chantilly lace with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore blue peau de soie with an overlay of french imported lace and matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchids.

The couple will reside in Kalamazoo.

Connie Cavill Wed To Robert Haddock

The Rev. Karl J. Hammar, pastor emeritus, performed the Aug. 22 wedding ceremony at Central Methodist Church at which Connie Lu Fisher Cavill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conan E. Fisher, Gladstone, became the bride of Robert Wayne Haddock Jr., son of the senior Robert Wayne Haddocks of 713 S. 11th St., Escanaba.

The 2 p. m. service was followed by a reception at The Terrace for guests from Escanaba, Gladstone, Iron Mountain, Kingsford, Washington, D. C. and points in Wisconsin, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Honor maid was Betsy S. Haddock, a sister of the bridegroom, and Kathleen M. Cook, was bridesmaid. James Cleere-man served as best man with Daniel J. Boyle, groomsmen.

The bride wore a street length dress of flocked chiffon over nylon with fitted bodice and bouffant sleeves and her attendants were in light pink street length sheaths of nylon Chantilly lace. Their flowers were pink and white mums in a round cluster bouquet.

Both mothers were presented with lavender orchid corsages. Mrs. Fisher chose a jacket dress of turquoise blue with matching accessories and Mrs. Haddock wore light green chiffon with white flocking.

The newlyweds are at home at 511 1/2 1st Ave. S. in Escanaba, following a honeymoon in Detroit and Chicago. The bride is a Gladstone High School graduate and Mr. Haddock was graduated from Escanaba Senior High School.

Parents Of Son

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson received word of the birth of a son, Kermit Lyndon, Thursday, Aug. 27, to Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Johnson of Fairchild, Wis. Kermit, who has a brother, Miles, was born in Sacred Heart Hospital in Eau Claire. Mrs. Johnson was formerly June Larson of Bark River and Arlene is the son of the Elmer Johnsons.

A daughter, Betty Johnson, employed with Prudential Insurance Co. in Waterloo, Iowa, arrived Sunday for a week's visit with her parents, the Elmer Johnsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grzybowski, Jr., and their son, Joseph, drove to Chicago Friday where Joseph, who has been home on leave, boarded a plane for his return to Ford Hood, Tex. While in Chicago the Grzyboskis visited with the former's sister, Marie, and her husband, the John Klicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Braun and children, Janis and John, arrived Sunday night from Vermillion, Ontario, for a few days visit with Mrs. Braun's parents, the I. R. Nelsons, before returning to their home in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson of St. Paul are visiting with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bruce.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams and family and Mrs. Edward Miller of Escanaba visited Sunday afternoon with Edward Miller who is a surgical patient at St. Luke's Hospital in Marquette.

Airman and Mrs. Kenneth Casperson and son, Todd, of Truax Air Force Base, Madison, son, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bruce. Kristine Bruce, who has been with the Caspersens the past few weeks, returned with them. Casperson will be discharged from the Air Force Sept. 12 and will enroll at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Many Firsts In Cathedral Rites

MARQUETTE — Two Upper Peninsula girls will become the first U. S. natives to don the habit of the Sisters of St. Paul des Chartres, in ceremonies at St. Peter's Cathedral Saturday at 10:30 a. m.

Virginia DeRoche of Munising and Catherine Houle of Escanaba will also receive their names-in-religion. The Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Marquette, will officiate, and will celebrate a Pontifical Low Mass after the investiture.

It will be a ceremony marked with "firsts".

This is the first formal ceremony for the order, since its first U. S. foundation was established, at Holy Family Home, Marquette, last summer.

For the first time, the ceremony will be entirely in English.

For the first time in over 106 years, Upper Peninsula girls will enter a teaching and nursing order of nuns for work in the diocese, at a ceremony conducted in the diocese.

In Novitiate

With the "Clothing Day" ceremonies, the girls enter the two-year novitiate of the order, which precedes the taking of vows. They have been postulants since late January, becoming familiar with the religious life. This period ended with an eight-day retreat, preceding the investiture.

The novitiate, also spent in Marquette, ends with another retreat, and the taking of temporary vows, which are repeated annually for five years, during which the sisters continue their training and work in schools, hospitals, orphanages and homes for the aged. In the Diocese of Marquette, the Sisters of St. Paul now staff St. William's grade school in Menominee, the Bishop Noa Home for Senior Citizens in Escanaba, and the Holy Family Home, which contains St. Paul's Novitiate, in Marquette.

Sr. Marie de Jesu, novice mistress has asked the families of the girls to take part in the day, just as they would at a wedding. Mrs. Alphonse Houle and Mrs. Raymond DeRoche are to assist the girls in dressing in their white gowns and the two fathers will escort their daughters down the long aisle of the cathedral, preceded by flower girls, as the ceremony begins.

The Sisters of St. Paul, a Congregation of Pontifical Right, were founded in 1696, in the Diocese of Chartres, France. It now includes about 5,000 sisters.

The Beginning

The decision to make their first foundation in the U. S. here in northern Michigan stems from aid members of the order, serving an orphanage in the Philippine Islands, received from Brother Edward Chisholm, of the Christian Brothers. Through him, they began corresponding with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Robert Chisholm, his brother.

Visiting Monsignor Chisholm, now of Menominee, sisters discussed the subject of an American foundation. Final plans were completed during the first session of the Ecumenical Council in Rome, when Bishop Noa visited with the Mother General of the Order.

In all, 14 orders of nuns serve Upper Peninsula schools and hospitals with a total of more than 300 Sisters in the Peninsula during the school year. They come from many states and some foreign lands. Meanwhile, more than 600 young women have gone from the peninsula to enter religious orders. Some of these have returned to the peninsula as teachers and nurses.

Mrs. Ronald James Brazeau (Gordon Nelson Photo)

Karen M. Rasmussen Ronald Brazeau Wed

Karen Marie Rasmussen and Ronald James Brazeau repeated marriage vows before Father Norbert Freiburger at St. Anthony's Church in Wells Saturday, Aug. 29.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rasmussen, 7 S. Highland Ave., Wells, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brazeau, 328 S. 15th St., Escanaba.

The 11 a. m. double ring ceremony was followed by a reception for 200 guests, held from 5 to 8 p. m. at Teamsters Hall.

White Chantilly lace fashioned the bride's gown. It featured a modified sweetheart neckline, long tapered sleeves and a controlled belt skirt with a satin rose nipping the side waist line. A dainty Swedish type crown of filmy illusion leaves highlighted with iridescent sequins and pearl drops held her bouffant veil of pure silk imported English illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums and red rosebuds.

Her attendants wore cranberry red sheaths with net overskirts. Their headpieces were matching tulle with a centered bow and their flowers were cascades of red and white mums. Mrs. David Schultz of Milwaukee, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Pat Sandborn and Kathleen La-

Karen Ketola Bride Of Bernard W. Carr

Houghton will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Carr, who were married in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Allen E. Parks at Grace Lutheran Church in Germfask Saturday, Aug. 29.

The 2 p. m. service was followed by a reception at Germfask Elementary School and a wedding dance at Beaver Park at Christmas.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Ketola of Seney and the late Emil Ketola, wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over taffeta, designed with a bateau neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and gathered chiffon cummerbund. Her headpiece was a crown of seeded pearls and lace with white nylon veiling. She carried a white lace covered Bible topped with pink sweetheart roses and streamers. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Aides' Attire

Janice Ketola, maid of honor for her sister, was attired in a dress of pink organza over taffeta, with gathered cummerbund, worn with a lace bolero jacket. Lorrena Swisher of Curtis, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress was deep rose taffeta, with a lace bodice. Both wore pink rose headpieces and carried colonial bouquets of pink mums, centered with a single white carnation.

Dianna Ketola, Seney, and Aaron Doran, Germfask, niece and nephew of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer. Dianna, who carried a wicker basket of garden flowers, was in a frock of white daron organza over pink with sheer embroidered bolero effect.

Auxiliary Will Meet Sept. 9

The opening meeting of St. Francis Hospital, usually scheduled for the first Wednesday of the month, has been set for one week later, Wednesday, Sept. 9. It will begin at the usual house, 2 p. m., in the Doctor's Room and all members and prospective members are invited to help plan activities for the new season.

Harmon Slams Two Homers Against League Leaders

By The Associated Press

It was a Punch and Judy show in the American League.

Harmon Killebrew played Punch. The Chicago White Sox played Judy.

Killebrew gave American League leading Baltimore the old one-two Monday night, hammering his 43rd and 44th homers for both Minnesota runs in a 2-1 victory over the Orioles.

The White Sox, meanwhile, swung like girls against Mickey Lolich, who played ring-a-round-a-rosie with the punchless Chicagoans, pitching six hitless innings before winding up with a three-hit, 8-0 victory.

And when the show was over, the Orioles still held their one-half game lead over the White Sox.

Killebrew, who hadn't hit a home in 14 games, tied the score 1-1 in the fourth when he smashed a drive 415 feet over the left field fence. Then, in the sixth, Killebrew applied the knockout blow, a 405-foot shot over the same fence. Both homers came off Steve Barber.

At the same time, Lolich had the White Sox dangling. Bringing his record to 14-7 with his fifth straight victory, the 23-year-old left-hander did not allow a hit until Al Weiss grounded a single to left leading off the seventh.

The only other hits off Lolich were singles by Camilo Carreon in the eighth and Pete Ward in the ninth.

The losses by the leaders enabled the third-place New York Yankees to climb within two games of the top. The defending champions whipped Los Angeles 4-1, despite the presence of the Angels' $200,000 bonus baby, Rick Reichardt, in the lineup.

Reichardt, making his major league debut in center field, struck out, fouled out twice and lined out in four trips and was unable to flag down Cleve Boyer's long drive that went for a two-run triple and capped the Yankees' decisive four-run sixth inning uprising.

Elsewhere, Sam McDowell and Don McMahon combined on a six-hit shutout as Cleveland blanked Washington 3-0 and Boston edged Kansas City 3-2 on a homer by Lee Thomas.

Killebrew's homers wiped out a 1-0 Baltimore lead built in the first inning on an error, a wild pitch and Brooks Robinson's double. Robinson's double was the only hit allowed by Twins' starter Jim Kaat, 15-7, until the eighth when John Orsino singled and Bob Johnson doubled.

When Kaat went to a two-ball, no-strike count on Jackie Brandt, Al Worthington came on in relief and snuffed out the Orioles' threat. He got Brandt to pop straight up to the catcher, then bore down and struck out Luis Aparicio.

Before the White Sox had collected their first hit, he had a 5-0 lead on Don Wert's three-run homer off Ray Herbert in the second inning and Jerry Lumpe's two-run, inside-the-park job in the fifth inning.

Lumpe's low liner went for a home when Floyd Robinson fell heavily to the ground while attempting a diving catch. Robinson landed on his head and suffered a temporary paralysis of the arms, but indications were that he would be back in the line-up tonight.

The Yankees broke a scoreless tie in the sixth by battering George Brunet for five hits. Singles by Pedro Gonzalez, Mickey Mantle and Elston Howard produced the first run. Hee Lopez brought in the second with a sacrifice fly before Boyer wrapped it up.

At Downing, 11-7, got the victory with a six-hitter, allowing the Angels only run in the seventh on singles by Lou Clinton, Tom Satranio and Bobby Knopf.

The Indians got the only run they needed for their 10th victory in the last 11 games when Vic Davalillo smacked a leadoff homer in the fifth inning off Frank Kreutzler. McMahon came on when McDowell faltered in the seventh and pitched hitless ball the rest of the way.

Nelson Mathews' two-run homer gave the A's a 2-0 lead in the first but Red Sox pitcher Jack Lamabe singled a run home in the second and Carl Yastrzemski's run-producing single tied it in the fourth. Thomas' homer in the seventh snapped the tie and Dick Radatz came on to protect the lead.

Saari Seeks Third Berth

NEW YORK (AP) — Roy Saari, the tireless, 19-year-old water wizard of El Segundo, Calif., guns for his third berth on the U.S. Olympic swimming team today and he doesn't have to worry about cutting out other hopefuls from the trip to Tokyo.

So far there have been six double berth winners — three men and three girls — in the record-smashing trials at the Astoria Pool.

But Uncle Sam's swim officials, determined to stack up the greatest team ever for Tokyo's Olympics, have decided to fill in the team of 38 men and 31 women to the limit allowed.

Thus, there is hope for those who have been taking steady beatings from Saari, Sharon Stouder, Donna de Varona, Don Schollander, Carl Robie and Kathy Ellis, all double makers of the team.

Saari, winner of the 400-meter freestyle and second in the 400-meter individual medley, was heavily favored to take the 1,500-meter freestyle today.

Miss Stouder became the first double winner of the trials Tuesday with a time of 1:05.7 in the 100-meter butterfly that bettered the listed world record.

Holland's Ada Kok holds the listed mark of 1:06.1 and a pending mark of 1:05.1. Sharon, a 15-year-old, blue-eyed blonde from Glendora, Calif., has a time of 1:05.4 up for recognition.

Big Knife Chops Vets

By The Associated Press

Two key members of the American Football League's first championship club and a pair of veteran National Football League running backs are among the latest victims of the pro grid game's Big Knife.

NFL and AFL teams, counting down to mid-September season kickoffs and cutting down rosters to reach next week's final player limits, sent a number of well-known players packing Tuesday in the next-to-last trimming session.

Bill Groman and Hogan Wharton, who starred for Houston's 1960 AFL title team, lost their jobs; so did eight-year NFL vet Tom Wilson and three-year man Pervis Atkins.

The Denver Broncos released Groman, an all-league end at Houston in 1960; the Oilers cut Wharton, an offensive guard who has been sidelined with an injured leg; the Minnesota Vikings axed fullback Wilson and the Los Angeles Rams cut half-back Atkins.

American League rosters were trimmed to 38 men plus rookies who played in the All-Star game at Chicago last month. NFL teams got down to 43 men plus players injured in the All-Star game who have not yet recovered. Next Tuesday, the AFL must reach the regular season limit of 34 and the NFL, 40.

Other prominent AFL casualties were offensive tackle Rich Michael, Oilers, former all-league defensive back Bob Zeman and ball carrier Dick Christy, New York Jets, quarterback Don Breaux, offensive end Tom Rychlec and defensive back Billy Atkins, Broncos, and offensive guard Dave Behrman, Buffalo Bills.

Allen, Callison Star As Phillies Maintain Edge

By The Associated Press

Richie Allen doesn't care about being the National League's top rookie and Johnny Callison wonders whether he's worthy of being the Most Valuable Player. But together, they may make Gene Mauch Manager of the Year.

Mauch's reluctant dragons lifted the Phillies to a 4-3 victory over the Houston Colts Tuesday night, keeping Philadelphia 5 1/2 games in front of Cincinnati which nipped Chicago 2-1 behind Jim Maloney's 13 strikeouts.

Hal (Skinny) Brown and Jim Bunning were locked in a scoreless pitcher's duel working on a two-hitter. Callison led off the seventh and tagged a one-strike pitch for his 24th homer. Before the inning was over, Wes Covington and Frank Thomas also had homered and, with Bunning breezing, the 3-0 lead looked safe.

When Allen whacked a Dick Farrell pitch to the 447-foot sign in deep center and raced around the bases for an inside-the-park homer in the eighth, it merely looked like window dressing.

But Bunning ran into trouble in the ninth. Nellie Fox and Al Spangler singled and two outs later, Joe Gaines clubbed a three-run homer, narrowing the lead to 4-3. But the Perfect Game hero bore down getting Carroll Hardy to end it.

Elsewhere in the NL, St. Louis moved into third place with a 5-4 victory over Milwaukee and New York dropped the Giants to fourth 2-1. Pittsburgh dropped Los Angeles 5-2.

"Rookie of the Year doesn't mean a thing," says Allen. "Let them put a $1000 up for it and it would be worthwhile." The rookie star also has been mentioned for MVP honors but scoffs at that thought too.

"If they do things right," he says, "they'll give that one to Johnny Callison. He deserves it."

He's had more clutch hits than anyone in the league.

It was Callison, who hasn't been too happy with his contribution to the Phillies' pennant express, who broke the spell against Brown Tuesday night.

"It's about time I started doing something," he said recently. His homer started the Phillies' three-run surge.

Covington's 13th homer followed Callison's shot and one out later, Thomas added his No. 8. Allen's homer was his 25th.

Mauch struck out seven of the first nine Cubs he faced and limited Chicago to just three hits. Leo Cardenas' run-scoring single in the fourth broke the tie and beat Ernie Broglio.

Al Jackson hurled a nifty six-hitter and Joe Christopher drove in two runs with a bases-loaded double for the Mets. San Francisco unveiled Masanori Murakami, the first Japanese national to play in the major leagues. The left-handed pitcher hurled one inning, striking out two and allowing one hit.

Bob Uecker singled home the winning run in the ninth inning for the Cardinals victory. The Braves chased 16-game winner Ray Sadecki with a four-run third but reliever Ron Taylor blanked them over the last six innings to pick up the victory.

Pittsburgh struck for three runs in the seventh inning giving Bob Friend his 11th victory against 15 defeats. The rally broke a 2-2 tie with the Dodgers. Willie Stargell's 18th homer of the year started the surge.

THE LITTLE WOMAN

Upper Peninsula Grid Season Opens Friday

Kingsford Is Champ; Big Coach Turnover

Football vaults into the Upper Peninsula high school sports limelight this weekend with opening games of the 1964 campaign.

Kicking off the season will be eight contests Friday night and nine Saturday.

The season will continue through Saturday, Oct. 31, with 40 schools taking part on a varsity level. Two newcomers in action this fall will be Lake Linden and Marquette Bishop Baraga.

Defending conference champions in the U. P. are Soo of the Great Lakes, Ironwood of the Michigan - Wisconsin, Houghton of the Copper Country, Kingsford of the Menominee Range and Soo Loretto of the Eastern U. P. All of the champions were unbeaten in their leagues. In addition, Bark River-Harris and Peninsula shared the top spot in the eight-man Wolverine Conference.

Kingsford is the defending Upper Peninsula champion, winner of the coveted Floyd Barber trophy in 1963. Coach Rae Drake's Flivvers were one of four U. P. teams that fashioned unbeaten, untied records last fall. The others were Soo, Ironwood and Soo Loretto.

Most of last year's outstanding individual scorers were lost through graduation, with the exception of Dick Berlinski of Kingsford and Frank Verbois of Ironwood. Berlinski was second in season scoring to Jack Spuhler of Soo Loretto with 147 points. Verbois was fifth in the U. P. list with 80 last fall.

There has been a turnover of 13 head football coaches this season, one of the largest in recent years. Schools with new coaches this fall include Calumet, Ontonagon, Newberry, Munising, Marquette, Holy Name, Powers-Spaulding, Bishop Baraga, St. Ignace, Bessemer, Stephenson, Norway and Lake Linden, in addition to Ashland and Maple, Wisconsin schools that compete in the Michigan - Wisconsin Conference.

Race Is Tight In Golf League

The Pel Melers, who were edged out of first place last week, narrowed the gap between the leading Free Swingers and themselves to only 1/2 point. The Has Beens are hanging onto the third playoff spot, leading the surging Beavers by a scant 2 1/2 points, and the Rum Dums finally vacated their season-long cellar spot.

Jerry Harris led all scorers with a sharp 36-37, Dave Friets and Dick Nelson fired 37's, Abe Milkovich 38, Bob Turner 39, and Matt Smith 40.

Team standings: Free Swingers 134 1/2, Pel Melers 134, Has Beens 123 1/2, Barney's Beavers 121, Sud Busters 118, Smitty's Smackers 110, Hackers 107, Doug's Dubbers 104, Rum Dums 100 1/2, and Divot Diggers 97 1/2.

Sports In Brief

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—The Buffalo Bills announced Tuesday that they have placed guard Dave Behrman on their injured deferred list to trim their roster to the American Football League's club limit of 38. Behrman, a second-year man from Michigan State, has an injured right knee.

HAMMS-MERCHANTS, champion of the Escanaba Softball League, will compete in the state Class B tournament that opens Friday night at Memorial Field. The Escanaba team will carry a season record of 19 victories in 21 starts into the tournament. First foe for the Escanaba champs will be Saginaw at 9 Friday night. The opener

Friday night at 7:30 matches Negaunee MULIC against Scottsville. Hamms will hold a practice session this evening at 6:15 at Memorial Field. Hofer Has Few Lettermen Back At Stephenson

STEPHENSON—Ken Hofer, returning as a coach to the school where he was an all-time football great in his prep career, has only 11 returning lettermen from last year's Stephenson High School squad.

Hofer, who went on from Stephenson to star in football and track at the University of Wisconsin, succeeds Axel Anderson as head mentor of the Eagles.

Lettermen back from the 1963 team that won two and lost six starts include Roger Wood, Jon Matthews, Gerry Hittman, Dennis Bowers, Ervin Kranberg, Gerry Lutri, Allan Pomeroy, David Bush, Paul Dougovito, Dave Westrich and Tom Raboine.

Other members of last year's team returning to the fold include Wes Eland, Charles Paronto, Wayne Douville, Dale Pearson, Mike Koldos, Mickey Raboine and Ray Borski.

Among the dozen lettermen lost from last year's squad were some outstanding performers such as center Roger Sager and back Jim Dougovito who made the Great Lakes all-conference first team and end Clarence Peterson who made the second team. Dougovito made the All-U. P. second team.

Hofer indicated he was impressed with the attitude and the desire displayed by his gridders in the two a day practice sessions for the season opener in which they will host Manistique Friday night.

Bowling Notes

The Wednesday Nite Holiday Major league will meet at the lanes at 7:30 this evening. All team captains and bowlers are expected to attend.

Bob St. John and Ricky Waak, youthful veterans of the Escanaba Junior hockey program, are taking part in the 1964 Detroit Red Wing hockey school being conducted this week at the Olympia Stadium in Detroit. Both will be seniors this year and will be competing again in the local hockey program. Among the coaches at the school are such Red Wing luminaries as Gordie Howe, Alex Delvecchio and Terry Sawchuk.

Joe Butch of Gladstone registered a rare eagle, the first in the memory of veteran club members, on the 452 yard No. 3 hole at the Gladstone Golf Club recently. Butch lined a 250 yard drive and hit the cup with a 3-iron on his second shot. He finished with a 38 on the nine holes.

Defending champion Bill Connors defeated Frank Perlich Jr. in his first round match in the Marquette Country Club tournament this week. Morgan Gingrass, medalist in qualifying round action, was eliminated in his first match by Bob Thomsen, a former club champion.

A perfect pitching performance by Dave (Whitey) Horka of Soo Northview was the highlight of the Upper Peninsula Class B softball tournament at Iron River over the weekend. Horka didn't give up a hit or walk, struck out nine batters and faced the minimum 21 batters in a 1-0 victory over Iron River Al & Sal's.

In the Upper Peninsula Class C tournament at Houghton, Jo-Jo's Bar of Marquette captured the championship with a 2-0 decision over Iron Mountain Edwards in the finals. Trenaery Floyd's Service, representing the Escanaba district, defeated McNeil Crystal Falls McNeil 2-1 and Houghton U.P. Power 4-2 before bowing to Soo Jollineau 6-3. Doug Gooding of Iron Mountain Town & Country barely missed a perfect mound performance. He walked the leadoff batter in the first inning and then retired the next 21 in a row to edge Marquette Remillard's 1-0.

Reno Pettenuzzo, the sensational pitcher for Canadian Soo Doran's Upper Peninsula Class A champs at Crystal Falls, gave up seven hits, two runs and fanned 34 batters in his four tournament starts. He was named the outstanding player in the Class A tourney for the second straight year. Duane McGill of Soo Bosch and Mead's Con Yagodzinski were named the top hitters in the tourney by Aldo Andreoli, sports editor of the Iron Mountain News.

The Soo Country Club has a new champion in Art Bates who defeated defending titlist Bill Dynes 1-up in the finals of the annual tournament. Bates, who previously captured the club championship in 1962, fired a two over par 74 in the title match.

Veteran netters Bob and Leonard Brumm regained their Marquette city doubles tennis championship last weekend. The Brumm brothers, well known for their long string of U.P. tournament titles here in Escanaba, defeated John Ghiardi and Bob Clark in the Marquette finals. Bob is the tennis coach at Negaunee High School and Leonard is the newly appointed coach of the Marquette Iron Rangers team in the United States Hockey League.

Dick Koski, new coach at Ontonagon, has a big football rebuilding job on his hands this fall. He is seeking replacements for 18 lettermen from last year's Polar Bear team that won four of six starts. He has seven returning senior letter winners. Koski is a former Wakefield High School and Northern Michigan University football star.

Joe Kiefer captured his third Twin City Open golf championship by defeating Rev. E. C. Stubenvoll 5-4 in the finals at the Little River Country Club course. He is the first golfer ever to win the tournament three times.

Wallace retained a narrow lead atop the Wishgan baseball league standings with a 17-4 victory over Birch Creek, pounding 18 hits off two enemy pitchers. Warren Suchovsky slammed out four safeties, including a homer, and Roger Wood took the mound decision in relief. Wallace has a 13-2 record to lead Peshtigo by a half game.

Public Schools Start Sept. 9

A general teachers meeting is scheduled Sept. 8 at 9 a.m., as the Manistique Public Schools prepare for another academic year. The remainder of the day following the meeting will be for discussion of program changes and organization.

The school term will begin Wednesday, Sept. 9 at 8:45 a.m., for children in grades kindergarten through grade six, inclusive.

In junior and senior high schools, seventh and ninth graders reported at 8:15 a.m., to obtain textbooks. Thursday, Sept. 10, at 8:15 a.m., 8th, 10th, 11th and 12th graders meet for the same purpose. Regular classes for junior and senior high schools state Friday, Sept. 11.

Students entering junior high school are required to deposit $3.00 to obtain textbooks. Former students bring the book deposit up to $3. Students attending senior high school must bring their book deposit account to $4, or, if new to the system, deposit $4.

In grades kindergarten through grade six, students will begin classes at 8:45 a.m., with noon dismissal at 11:15 for kindergarten and first grades and 11:30 for all other grades.

Afternoon classes begin at 1 p.m. for all elementary grades. Dismissal times are 3:15 for kindergarten and first grade, 2:30 for second, third and fourth and 3:45 p.m., for fifth and sixth graders.

For grades 7-12, school will begin at 8:15 a.m. Noon dismissal will be at 11:30. Afternoon classes begin at 12:45 and continue until 4 p.m.

The Lakeside kindergarten session is scheduled for the morning and Central for the afternoon. If parents have not done so, proof of age is requested for all kindergarten pupils. By state law, pupils must be five by Dec. 1 to be eligible for kindergarten.

Children entering school for the first time are requested to furnish proof that the child has received protection against small pox, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and polio.

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—The Big Rock Point nuclear power plant has successfully passed a series of performance tests under supervision of Consumer Power Company, the owner, and General Electric.

The plant, located near Charlevoix, has operated at the generator's peak capacity of 75,000 kilowatts. Another test showed that the plant can produce desired quantities of power from amounts of nuclear fuel smaller than previously thought possible, power company officials said.

The plant has already produced many millions of kilowatt hours for customers since it went into operation in 1962.

After the end of a 30-months development program, starting now, all of the plant's power will be channeled through the company's distribution system to producers, the officials said.

LANSING (AP)—Recent rains have increased soil moisture supplies to help state crops, reports the Federal-State Agricultural Service.

Only a few scattered areas in the eastern and northern sections of the state still report some shortages.

The fourth cutting of hay is reported taller than the third in the southern section of the state.

Harvesting of oats is about complete. Corn is recovering from the drought earlier in the growing season. Harvesting of dry beans had just started in the east central area. A good yield of soybeans is expected.

The sugar beet harvest prospect improved with recent rains. Processors planned to get the harvest under way about Sept. 17.

The Wealthy Apple harvest is at a peak in the southwest region. The McIntosh pick is just starting. Red Delicious and Jonathon apples are scheduled for picking in about two weeks.

More than half the pear harvest is picked in the southwest. The early plum harvest has started. Blueberry picking is about over.

The vegetable harvest continues, although cool nights hold back maturity. The pickle and tomato harvests are slowed by cool weather.

The early melon harvest is about completed. Picking of Niagara Grapes has just started in the southwest.

Fall Fishing Picks Up Luck

Some of the smaller trout streams, such as Portage Creek, Hunter's Brook, and Bichler's Creek, have been producing good fishing the past week in the Escanaba area. Perch fishing has improved and should continue to improve into the fall run. Fishing in the Escanaba Yacht Harbor area and municipal dock has been good. Walleye fishing upstream from the mouth of the Escanaba River has been good in the early morning hours. There is also fair perch fishing in this area.

In the Gladstone area fishing in the Little Bay de Noc area has shown a marked increase in activity during the past week with perch and northern pike biting off north Gladstone and in the Masonville area. Northern pike are being taken on various hardware lures and large sucker minnows, during most of the daylight hours, and perch are being taken on minnows and worms. Some small-mouth black bass are being taken on minnows and night-crawlers.

A few walleye are being taken at the head of the bay and on the Day's River reef. With cool nights and higher streams, trout fishing has also shown an increase in pressure with some large trout being taken on the Rapid, Whitefish, and Escanaba rivers. Several fishermen, using grasshoppers, have made some good catches on the Rapid above the Dutch Mill.

In the Ensign area trout fishing should be good on smaller streams such as Haymeadow Creek and 18 Mile. Water has been high due to rain. Bass fishing can be expected to remain good near St. Vital's Island and Ogontz Bay. Some walleye are being taken south of St. Vital's Island on night-crawlers.

In the Nahma area trout fishing has been fair to good with some brook trout being taken on worms on the Big Fishdam and 18 Mile Creek. Water levels are good even though recent heavy rains have raised the water on most streams. Inland lakes have only been fair, however, some large bluegills continue to appear on Lyman and Chicago lakes.

In the Rock area heavy local rain and heavier rain to the north raised the water to high levels on the Escanaba River and the Sawmill Creek and very little fishing took place during the past week. The streams are not expected to lower much in the coming week if forecasted rains occur and fishing for rainbows and brooks probably will only be fair, with live bait producing the best. Boat trips from Gwinn down to the West Rock area should be ideal.

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union and Chrysler Corp. appeared ready today to move off dead-center in their two-month-old negotiations on a new contract.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said bargainers would meet "morning, afternoon and night" at Chrysler today for the first such lengthy endeavor to break the stalemate.

Reuther took occasion to deny at three impromptu news conferences Tuesday he was driving to hand President Lyndon B. Johnson a signed-and-delivered contract to announce at a Labor Day speech to which Reuther said Johnson is committed in Detroit.

Reuther described as "an exercise in unreality" a report that speculation was mounting in Detroit he hoped to give his presidential favorite a contract-peg on which to tie his campaign opener.

As the day before, Reuther asserted on his own, without questioning: "If you asked me now will there be a strike at 10 a. m., EST Sept. 9."

Indian Friend Of Sebecks Buried At Crash Scene

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sebeck, 1204 Michigan Ave., have received word of the finding of the body and burial of their Indian friend, Les Weimer who was killed in a plane crash during a hunting trip last October 28. Burial was made at the site where the body was found recently.

The body was found by a sheepherder who slipped and fell onto a ledge where the body had become lodged about 800 feet from where the plane had crashed.

Mr. Weimer's son, Leslie, of Valparaiso, Ind., James and John Wyckoff, sons of L. Kenyon Wyckoff, who was also killed in the plane crash, and Dick Redlands, a nearby rancher who served as chief guide on the 12,000 foot climb to the moved.

Sloppy Clothes Flunk Out On Most Campuses

By JERRY SHEEHAN

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. NEW YORK — (NEA) — The uniform of today's college student is no longer a sweat shirt and grubby sneakers—at least not that of alert collegians.

A handful of them gathered recently in an air-conditioned office on New York's Fifth Avenue, and they all looked as cool and relaxed as a chary stone clam resting in a plate of shaved ice.

They were brought from around the country in their crisp summerweight suits and sports jackets to pass judgment on young women's fashions. The seminar was organized by (Celanese) a monster corporation which brews up the fibers for many of today's fabrics.

Incidental to their comments on feminine clothing (most of them believed the starting point of nice design was a good figure underneath), they neatly summed up the prevailing approach to male campus clothing. Herewith, their quick summaries of what is being worn where:

YALE (Henry Allen Sullivan): "You have to wear a jacket and tie to all meals; with that, however, you can combine jeans and sneakers for comfort. A suit is the thing for in-town dates."

OHIO STATE (Terry Settlement): "Sports jackets, of course, are the cornerstone of the closet. A lot of students during the warmer months combine a jacket with Bermudashirts."

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA (James C. Morgan III): "Like Yale, coats and ties are generally required. Inexpensive slacks, shoes and socks round out the picture for campus wear."

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA (P. Kyle McCarter): "Sports jackets are a must if you're getting dressed up. As far as I can tell, only the students at the law school wear suits to class."

U.C.L.A. (James Evans): "On the coast most of the fellows just wear slacks and a sport shirt. The jacket stays in the dormitory until evening."

The quintet generally agreed that neckties were an important part of the wardrobe. Although all claimed owning from 20 to 30 ties, they admitted that only about four or five saw regular use.

The manufacturers are still trying to figure out this phenomenon of male taste.

Saugatuck Set To Curb Mobs

ALLEGAN (AP)—"We expect no trouble but if should develop, officers will be prepared to end it once and for all," says Allegan County Prosecutor Ervin L. Andrews of plans to safeguard nearby Saugatuck from vacationer rowdism.

He commented after a strategy meeting with law agencies in advance of the Labor Day weekend.

Saugatuck, a Lake Michigan resort community popular with weekend vacationing young people, was shaken over the Memorial Day and Fourth of July holidays by mob scenes which required police reinforcements and led to numerous misdemeanor arrests.

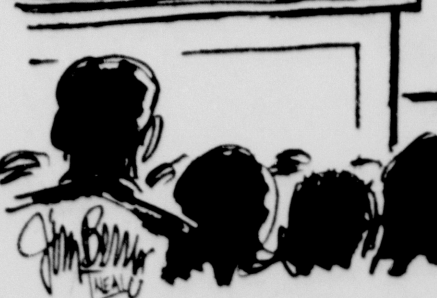

Available for the coming holiday as a result of the planning session will be 30 uniformed state troopers, 30 patrol cars and all the plainclothes officers from the state police 5th and 6th districts. A mobile command post also will be on hand to aid Saugatuck's part-time force of eight uniformed officers augmented by county sheriff's men.

Andrews said also steps would be taken to seal off the village from traffic at the first sign of trouble.

The term pharmacophobia describes an aversion to medicines, especially to prescriptions.

Broad Housing Bill Is Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed today the $1,131,800,000 bill to continue and expand various housing programs and said it would benefit all America.

Dozens of members of Congress crowded into the Cabinet Room for the ceremony.

Johnson said there was a commitment to assure every American an opportunity to live in a decent home and a safe and decent neighborhood.

He called the legislation "a milestone to assure that commitment."

The total in the bill was nearly $700 million below the $1,824,000,000 Johnson recommended. The bill omitted his proposals for aid in building satellite communities in metropolitan areas.

Largest item in the bill was $725 million for urban renewal. It also authorizes 37,500 new public-housing units.

The measure raises to $30,000 from $25,000 the present mortgage payment insurance limit on one-family homes by the Federal Housing Administration.

It establishes a new $50-million program to induce property owners to rehabilitate slum properties and so avoid need for larger federal renewal projects.

Broader lending authority would be granted to both national banks and savings and loan associations.

Rep. Lesinski, Rights Bill Foe, Handed Defeat

Sen. Philip Hart in the November election.

As a onetime vice-chairman of the GOP State Central Committee, Mrs. Peterson was credited with strengthening the organization from the precinct level up.

This organizational experience, plus seven-days-a-week campaigning, was credited by political observers as the chief factors in her defeat of James O'Neil, a member of the State Board of Education, and Edward Meany, a sales promotion manager for a leather goods company in Grand Haven.

Mrs. Peterson of Charlotte, has pledged support for the GOP national ticket, headed by Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater.

"I don't necessarily agree on all items with Mr. Goldwater, just as I don't see eye-to-eye on all issues with Gov. (George) Romney," she said. "But this is a big enough party to weather differences of opinion. Our basic philosophy is the same."

Romney was declined to state flatly that he will support Goldwater.

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's political stage was set today for a fall election campaign that promises to keep voters in suspense until the last ballot is counted in November.

A heavy vote in Tuesday's primary produced a lineup of new faces for federal, state and local offices that could bring a record turnout at the general election and further upsets at the polls.

As expected, Gov. George Romney clobbered his Republican opponent, former State Sen. George Higgins, and will seek reelection to his second two-year term against Democratic Rep. Neil Staeble.

Statistically speaking, the Romney-Staeble race shapes up as a close one.

In the 1962 primary against then-Gov. John Swainson, Romney polled 58 per cent of the total vote cast for governor and went on to win in November with slightly more than 51 per cent. His plurality was $8,000 out of 2.7 million votes.

In yesterday's primary, Romney won about 50 per cent of the vote. Combined with the Higgins total, the GOP share was about 57 per cent.

But Staeble is known as a fast-finish stretch runner.

In 1962, he trailed behind the Republican candidate for Congress at-large with only 46 per cent of the primary vote. By the time the November pay-off rolled around, though, he had overtaken his opponent and wound up with about 51 per cent of the vote.

Tuesday's totals also gave Staeble a higher vote than that chalked up by Sen. Hart.

Political observers believed Hart's total was lower because (1) Staeble has been campaigning longer and harder, and (2) there may have been some political backlash aimed at Hart for his proposal to make a portion of Sleeping Bear Dunes a national park area.

Newspaper want ads are a big sell! Eight hundred million was spent on classified ads last year . . . more than for all television spot announcements or radio advertising.

BACK TO SCHOOL parade brought together these youngsters and hundreds of others in the Delta area this morning for the first day of the fall session. From left Dianne Baribeau, Cynthia Casperson, Cynthia Bosk, Susan Beauchamp, Kim Hanson and Chryl Johnson chat in front of the John A. Lemmer School before entering for another year of studies. Bandit Holds 5, Gets Only $5 In Flop Robbery home. Meanwhile, police went to the bank to prevent a holdup which never came.

Hides From Officer

The bandit ordered Boczar to take a briefcase and get the $75,000, then come back. Boczar left and DeGrace arrived. "Your stupid husband has called the police," the thug told Mrs. Boczar.

Mrs. Boczar said the man "grabbed my neck hard and told me his gun would make a big hole."

The bandit ordered her to the door and told her to tell DeGrace everything was alright. The bandit hid from view. "I went up to the front door," said DeGrace. "She was nervous and said she couldn't let me in because they had a very bad dog."

"I muttered under my breath for her to get out of the house," he added. "Fortunately, Mrs. Boczar's children had followed her to the door."

DeGrace said Mrs. Boczar grabbed the children, and he helped half pull all three off to one side. They jumped over a railing into a corn field.

The bandit fired as DeGrace crouched and returned the fire. The shattering glass struck him in the face as the bandit fled.

Pilot Shot Down In Laos Escapes To U.S. Air Base

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — U.S. Navy jet pilot Charles F. Klusmann, shot down three months ago by Laotian Communists, has escaped from his barbed wire prison and reached the safety of an American air base at Udorn, in friendly Thailand.

After receiving preliminary medical attention, food and clean clothing, the 30-year-old lieutenant was flown today to an undisclosed destination.

Details of the escape have not yet been made public. The U.S. Embassy in Bangkok said Klusmann was being flown to the United States.

At their home in San Diego, Calif., Klusmann's wife, Sarah, said she was "absolutely elated" but not surprised by his escape. "What I said in the beginning of all this was that if anyone can get out, he can," she said. "He has been through the survival school that all Navy aviators go through."

The embassy said Klusmann appeared to be "in relatively good physical condition." The escape was first disclosed by the White House in Washington

Tuesday afternoon.

Klusmann was on a photo reconnaissance flight in his unarmed Crusader jet over the Communist-held Plaine des Jarres in central Laos last June 6 when Pathet Lao gunfire brought him down. He was based on the U.S. aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk.

He parachuted safely but wrenched a knee in landing. Klusmann waved off a rescue helicopter, as Pathet Lao ground forces were closing in. The pilot was last seen surrounded by Communist soldiers.

Senior Citizens Hear Rev. Nelson

Humorous experiences in his career as a student and minister were cited by Rev. Waifred Nelson, pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church, at the meeting of the Senior Citizens Committee of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce at the Chamber building yesterday afternoon. Chairman John J. Bartella presided.

Rev. Nelson said that we are in danger of losing our young people because of a tendency to conformity with public pressures of freedom for the young with a laxity of parental discipline. He advocated a sterner approach to the responsibility of parenthood.

Chamber Manager Walter Lewke presented a Certificate of Appreciation from the City of Escanaba to the Senior Citizens Committee for their efforts in the Ore Centennial Celebration. Chairman Bartella accepted the certificate on behalf of the committee.

The committee was lauded for its outstanding assistance in connection with the Timber Producers Association's U. P. Logging Congress to be held in Escanaba Sept. 10-12.

Briefly Told

The Bay de Noc Beagle Club will meet at 214 S. 22nd St. in Escanaba at 8 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 3.

Escanaba police have ticketed Karl H. Zimmer, 1110 Minnesota, Gladstone, for improper turn and leaving the scene of a property damage accident.

Annual picnic of the Bay de Noc Conservation League will be held at Lambert's Grove for members only on Sept. 13. Reservations should be made by calling George Matt at 428-0420.

Ervin E. Vandeville, who was among four Escanaba area young men inducted into the U. S. Navy recently, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Vandeville of the Chemical Plant location. He was erroneously identified as the son of the Emil Vandevilles.

J. A. Wallace, branch manager of the Escanaba office of the National Cash Register Co., is one of 230 of the company's top sales executives participating in a special seminar at NCR's headquarters in Dayton, O., covering the newest developments in retail automation techniques.

The Rotary Club of Escanaba heard several of its members present autobiographies for an impromptu and interesting program Tuesday noon at the House of Ludington. Participating in the program were George S. Douglas, J. L. Heirman, Dr. V. K. Johnson, Russell Lee and Dr. N. L. Lindquist.
